PEACE CATCHER PROJECT

We've all heard about the Native American Dream Catcher that catches our good dreams in the web! But, what if we could catch---PEACE? How could we give PEACE away? What might peacefulness look like in our homes, families, schools and workplace? In this workshop, participants will be guided as they create their personal Peace Catcher using ribbon, cloth, beads, yarn and more. Come join us as we embark on this journey of spiritual nourishment, creativity and introspection.
