

13th Annual Direct Caregivers' Conference

Star Performer Awards

Celebrate OTHER CAREGIVERS by nominating those who deserve recognition for our NEW Star Performer Award categories. The Star Performer Awards are designed to recognize employees in direct care who go above and beyond in providing high quality care and exceptional customer service. Caregivers who daily demonstrate respect for residents and their rights and dignity, good judgment, dependability, initiative, and positivity are well qualified for nomination.

- ❖ All nominated Star Performers will be honored and provided a certificate during the awards ceremony at the 13th Annual Direct Caregivers' Conference on August 16, 2019.
- ❖ One person will be chosen from the nominees by the Direct Caregivers' Network subcommittee for each of the four award categories below.
- ❖ Winners will be awarded certificates & prize baskets valued at $250+
 - Star Caregiver of the Year Award: This person displays overall excellence in every area: provides superior care, promotes clients rights, shows sound judgment, manages time wisely, and often takes initiative in all areas.
 - Constellation Team Player of the Year Award: This person is a positive role model for others, promotes a team environment, takes initiative with new employees, often works overtime or shifts that others can't.
 - Rising Star Performance Award: This person shows continual growth or improvement in the field and/or in their personal skill set. You choose who to nominate and the reasons why you find them to be a Rising Star.
 - Supernova Years of Experience Award: This person has worked in the field for many years and continues to provide the highest quality care to residents.

All nominees may attend the Direct Caregiver's Network for a discounted rate of $15. Submit your nomination by August 1, 2019
